Please tell us why:

The Greyhound Racing Act 2017 was introduced to support the NSW Government's reform of the NSW greyhound racing industry. The aims of the Act can be broadly grouped into the five areas below. You are welcome to share your feedback on any of these areas in the boxes provided.
13. Aim 1 – Introducing a new Commission to oversee and enforce animal welfare and integrity standards for the industry:
14. Aim 2 – Improving animal welfare in the greyhound racing industry:

15. Aim 3 – Improving registration for greyhounds, owners, clubs and trial tracks:
16. Aim 4 – Strengthening investigatory and enforcement powers and the tools that help regulate the industry (such as offences, fines, penalties and disciplinary measures):
17. Aim 5 – Focusing Greyhound Racing NSW's role on the industry's commercial viability, supporting greyhound welfare and promoting the industry:
